- 4 The title screen of your particular TurboChip game card should appear on your television.

Oh, oh. There's Trouble in Pac-Land!

A fairy princess has appeared in Pac-Land and it's Pac-Man's job to help her out! Leap over bridges, cross over rivers and face mountains, forests and deserts in your quest to save her.

But watch out! Monsters are everywhere. In this all-new Pac-Man adventure you'll have to use your head as well as your playing skills to reach "Monster Mansion," win back the fairy princess, score points and return home to your Pac-Man family. Hidden secrets, special features and dangerous passageways abound in this all-out, monster-gobbling adventure. Take any of 8 different trips through Pac-Land!

Object of the Game

Rescue the fairy princess from Pac-Land's Monster Mansion and return her to Fairy Land. Avoid rampaging monsters, gobble-up blue ghosts when you eat a power pill, discover hidden secrets and score as many points as possible along the way.

The game is composed of 8 different "trips" through Pac-Land. Each trip is divided into four rounds. The first three rounds involve taking the fairy princess back to Fairy Land. In the fourth round, Pac-Man returns home to his Pac-Family—with some help from the princess.

When Pac-Man touches a monster, falls into a pond or off a cliff, you lose one life. The game is over when you lose your last Pac-Man. Highest score wins!

This is Pac-Land!

Monster Mansion

This place is full of monsters! Watch out for dead-end passageways that may leave you trapped!

Bridges

Leap along these bridges which are sometimes broken and dangerous. Watch out for water spouts that pop up out of nowhere and drag Pac-Man down!

Forests

Watch out for the monsters on pogo sticks! They'll leap out at you from bushes and thickets. Look for their eyes.

This is Pac-Land!

Mountains

Climb over cliffs by using log ladders or floating on clouds. Watch out for enemy airplanes!

Streets

Watch out! Look closely and you'll see monsters lurking inside of windows, doors and cars.

Desert

Here you'll encounter quick-sand skulls. Come too close and you'll be dragged into a sandy prison!

Starting the Game

Before the game begins, you select the operating mode and the starting "trip" you want to take.

Select an Operating Mode

In Pac-Land, you can choose one of two ways to control the movement of Pac-Man. "Lever Control" allows you to use the Direction Key to move Pac-Man left and right. "Button Control" allows you to use Buttons I and II to move Pac-Man left and right (see "Operating Controls" in the next section). From the title screen, use the SELECT Button to choose the method of control you want, and enter your selection using the RUN Button.

Select a Trip

After you've selected an Operating Mode, you must select a trip. If you've chosen "lever" control, use the Direction Key to move the fairy to one of the trips numbered 1 through 5. If you've chosen "button" control, use Buttons I and II to move the fairy. Press the RUN Button to enter your choice. The game begins immediately following your selection.

Pausing the Game

During play, press the RUN Button to pause the game.

Resetting the Game

During play, the game can be reset to the title screen by holding down the RUN Button and pressing the SELECT Button at the same time.

Extended Play

You get an extra Pac-Man when your score reaches certain amounts. The first extra player comes at 30,000 points, the next at 100,000 points and from that point on you receive an extra player at every 100,000 point interval (no extra players after 1,000,000 points).

Continuing Play

When the game is over selecting "YES" and pressing the RUN Button allows you to continue the game from the beginning of the last round. Again, if you've chosen "lever" control use the Direction Key to indicate "YES." If you've chosen "button" control use Buttons I and II.

Registering Your Score

When the game is over, and your score is among the five highest, you can enter your name and record your score by using either the Direction Key (if you've chosen "lever" control) or Buttons I and II (if you've chosen "button" control). Use the RUN Button to enter your selections. The "Continue" screen will then appear.

Operating Controls

Pad Operation

The movements of Pac-Man are controlled with your TurboPad Controller. As previously

Screen Displays

Operating Techniques

The following are the basic techniques used in playing the game. Master these (and discover others!) to obtain the highest scores possible.

High Jump

If you jump while running, you can jump twice the normal distance.

Long Jump

When jumping off of springboards, press Button I repeatedly if you are using "Lever Control" or press the lever repeatedly if you are using "Button Control." This will allow you to jump farther than normal.

Riding on Heads

When you come into contact with a monster, you normally lose one player. However, you can ride on a monster's head, allowing you to travel without danger from the ghost you are on.

Abrupt Stop

When you release the button which is making Pac-Man go in one direction, he normally comes to a gradual halt. You can make Pac-Man come to an abrupt stop by pressing the button in the reverse direction.

Magic Stop

When you return the fairy to Fairy Land, you receive a pair of magic shoes as a reward. When you put these shoes on, you will be able to fly by jumping repeatedly.

The Secrets of Pac-Land (Part I)

Each time you discover one of Pac-Land's "secrets," your score increases and it becomes easier to clear the game.

Power Pill

Pac-Man's energy source is the yellow balls floating in the air. The instant you eat one of these balls, the monsters turn blue and run away. This is your chance to attack! The more monsters you eat in succession, the higher their value and the higher the number of points you will score!

Fruit

Eating the fruit that appears during your quest gives you another chance at bonus points. In addition to those fruits appearing on the ground, fruit will appear in mid-air and on top of obstacles.

Victory Dance Points

Bonus points can be earned by performing a victory dance (jumping up and down at the right location) just before the end of each round.

Boats

Whenever there are bridges to be crossed, boats appear. By capturing the boat power-up, a bridge is extended over wide gaps, and it becomes easier to cross gaps. The boats are small, so be sure not to overlook them.

Keys

In the Monster Mansion, you will come across dead-end passageways here and there. If you pick up the keys you find along the way, you can open the doors that block your path.

The Secrets of Pac-Land (Part II)

Under certain circumstances, hidden items can be made to appear in the game. For example, try pushing a fire hydrant, stump or cactus in the direction opposite from which you are moving. Some of these objects can be moved and one of the hidden items below may appear.

Helmets

Wearing a helmet protects you from small monsters falling from the sky. You can retrieve bonus points when the small ghosts hit your head.

Upside-Down Pac-Man

Now Pac-Man walks on his head! During the time Pac-Man is flipped upside down and backwards, your "progress points" are doubled.

Invisible Pac-Man

When Pac-Man is invisible, he cannot be harmed by the enemy. Water columns also have no effect on an invisible Pac-Man, but don't fall off ledges!

Lucky Pac-Man

Acquire a Lucky Pac-Man and the "time-remaining" is entered as bonus points. The time is also reset to the initial, full amount.

Galaxian

Find this and it's your lucky day! You'll receive 7,650 points!

Balloons

Six balloons appear at once. Each balloon is worth 100 points except one hidden balloon which is worth 7,650 points!

Special Pac-Man

Gives you one extra player.

Playing Tips

There are many ways to uncover hidden items. Experiment!

Practice with both modes of control and find out which is more comfortable for you.

Always examine all of the fire hydrants, cacti and tree stumps. They often yield the beneficial enhancements that you'll need to complete your quest. These power-ups are often in the same location from round to round so explore and remember which items are hidden under which obstacles.

Try manipulating your jumping at the end of each level. By skillfully jumping right as the round comes to an end, you'll be given bonus points. Similar techniques will reward you with up to 7,650 points in many areas.

Put Button I TurboSwitch on high to easily traverse the lakes. After you jump on the end of the springboard, hold the button down and you will glide over the water with the greatest of ease!

You can time your jumps to land on the ghosts and ride on their heads to higher areas on the screen. This makes it easier to travel in some rounds and becomes necessary in higher levels to get over wide lakes without springboards. Remember, you can ride on the ghosts' heads, but don't touch their bodies!

When racing back to your Pac-Home at the end of each level, don't forget that you can repeatedly jump in place and fly as well as run across the landscape.

If you complete all 8 trips through Pac-Land successfully, you'll be challenged to try your skills in 8 Pac-Land Pro trips! Good luck!
